COMMUNICATION FROM INDEPENDENT COUNSEL KENNETH W. STARR

The Speaker laid before the House the following communication from Kenneth W. Starr, Independent Counsel:

OFFICE OF THE INDEPENDENT COUNSEL,
Washington, DC, September 9, 1998.

Hon. NEWT GINGRICH,

Speaker, U.S. House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

Hon. RICHARD A. GEPHARDT,

Democratic Leader, U.S. House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER AND REPRESENTATIVE GEPHARDT: Today this Office has delivered to the Sergeant at Arms, the Honorable Wilson Livingood, 36 sealed boxes containing two complete copies of a Referral to the House of Representatives. This Referral is filed in conformity with the requirements of Title 28, United States Code, Section 595(c), which provides that "[a]n independent counsel shall advise the House of Representatives of any substantial and credible information which such independent counsel receives . . . that may constitute grounds for an impeachment."

This Referral contains confidential material and material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Disclosure of this material to the House of Representatives has been authorized by the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, Division for the Purpose of Appointing Independent Counsels. A copy of that order is attached. The contents of the Referral may not be publicly disclosed unless and until authorized by the House of Representatives. Many of the supporting materials contain information of a personal nature that I respectfully urge the House to treat as confidential.

I respectfully request that the Sergeant at Arms maintain this Referral in a sealed and secure condition and deliver this sealed Referral to the House of Representatives at a time and place to be determined by the House consistent with its own Rules. Until such time as the Sergeant at Arms is directed to deliver this Referral, I consider it a record of the Office of the Independent Counsel, and executive department of the Executive Branch. I respectfully request that the Referral remain sealed until its formal receipt by the House. Jefferson's Manual, §706(c) (citing Speaker O'Neill's ruling of July 31, 1980, CONG. REC. at 20765).

Respectfully yours,

KENNETH W. STARR,
Independent Counsel.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRIES

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I note that the Rules of the House say that any document in any committee is available to any Member of this House upon proper presentation by that Member to this committee. Will that rule prevail with regard to the documents referred to?

The SPEAKER. The documents currently do not belong to any committee and are in possession of the House under armed guard. The House will consider a rule to deal with the documents. At that time, the gentleman may have an ample opportunity, to debate it.

The majority is working very closely with the minority leader and the ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary and with the Members on both sides of the Committee on Rules to develop a rule which may come to the Committee on Rules. This hopefully will be a clearly bipartisan rule with a broad base of support which will handle a complex group of documents in a way that will both meet the public interest and the needs of the Members.

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I have a further parliamentary inquiry. As I note that the Rules of the House require that any document in the possession of any committee or in the possession of the House is available to any Member of this House upon demand; is that correct?

The SPEAKER. Only with respect to committee files. Documents initially in the possession of the whole House can be handled in a different manner. And until the Committee on Rules and the House has determined where these documents will go and in what manner they will be handled, they will be maintained under armed guard in a room that the Sergeant at Arms is responsible for.

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, again, I have a further parliamentary inquiry. The documents are in the custody of the Speaker, are they not?

The SPEAKER. At the direction of the Chair, the documents are in the custody of the Sergeant at Arms on behalf of the House. No Member of the House, neither the Speaker nor the minority leader nor any other Member nor any staff member, has access to these documents.

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, how would a Member of the House who seeks to see these documents go about seeing them?

The SPEAKER. The most efficient way could be for the gentleman from Mississippi to meet with either the minority leader or the ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary and explain how he wishes them to be handled, so that as the rule is written tonight or tomorrow morning it is written in a manner that fits the gentleman's interest. That is the way for an individual Member to be effective on this topic. On the Republican side, Members could meet with the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. HYDE) or the gentleman from New York (Mr. SOLOMON).

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, I have a further parliamentary inquiry. If it is the understanding of a Member that the people that the Speaker has mentioned would not be in favor of releasing the report, what recourse then would a Member, or hopefully a majority of Members, have in seeking these documents?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will not speculate on relations inside the gentleman's party. The gentleman will have to discern that for himself. The Chair will not speculate on how that might work out. The gentleman would also, as a Member, have a right to vote against a proposed rule.

Mr. TAYLOR of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, is that the sole recourse?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will not speculate, but the gentleman may want to sit down with the Parliamentarian and determine what other recourse he might have.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York (Mr. SOLOMON), chairman of the Committee on Rules.

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I would say to the honorable gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL) and the gentleman from Mississippi (Mr. TAYLOR) that there are ongoing meetings right this minute between the staffs of the Committee on the Judiciary on both sides of the aisle and the Committee on Rules on both sides of the aisle to make a determination of how to expedite this matter. And I would suggest to any and all Members that they go to their respective party leaders, because that input is being put in right now and sometime this evening we will come to some kind of bipartisan decision and bring that rule to the floor tomorrow.
